What did you like best about this presentation?

Very good!

Informative, human interest. Speaker was precise, concise, didn't use 'uh', 'ya know' or 'like' when speaking like many do. He was very pleasant and enjoyable to listen to. Provided useful & practical info we all can and should use!

The 4 steps of EMS management.

Very Good!

Awsome

Great lessons to apply with any agency & community.

The reality of the situation.

Outstanding! All of it.

Makes me realize I'm not prepared, and I will be.

Absorbing-inspiring-motivational! Thank You!!

Great Speaker

Thank you for sharing and making people aware.

Real time communications

Having the captain involved personally speak about the incident.

Visual

Fabulous!

Great sense of humor

everything

Amazing!

Speaker applied his experience in a manner we can apply to our jobs in any industry.

Real experience

Speaker was straight forward, did not get off track at all. Also his explaining of the importance of PTSD. The importance of preparedness.

The message - The topic

The emotions

Video & detailed description

Everything. Very inspirational.

The 5 key points are most applicable.

AI

A real life scenario

The speaker spoke the facts of what happened and how we can apply safety to everyday.

Great speaker, great lessons.

Excellent

---

What constructive changes would you suggest to make the presentation more effective?

!Absolutely NONE!

!Nothing amazing as it is!

!Screens needed to be higher.

!Need someone to run PC!

Inone

!A bit more 'delivery' start to finish.

!Microphone too loud

!The speaker was hard to understand and very distracting with his 'clicking' while talking.

Suggested Topics for next year:

Propane explosion - like one @ hwy 16 & S Tacoma Wy

Fire Dept chlorine gas leak @ Pioneer/olin (?)

More of the same type subject

Flooding - large scale

Post-fatality accident investigation - excavations 'Lessons learned?'

Perhaps failures or positive things that occurred during 9/11. (Emergency preparedness)

I think we should do a practice evacuation drill on the Tuesday before the staff meeting.
